

I'm a freelance editor working across the public and non-profit sectors. I help purpose-led organisations to create publications that inform decision-making, facilitate best practice and inspire social change. I also copyedit non-fiction books for traditional publishers.

EXPERIENCE

I have more than a decade of freelance experience working on a wide variety of print and online content, including:

- Impact/evaluation reports
- Training and education materials
- Research and policy briefings
- News and feature articles
- Toolkits and guides
- Books and manuals
- Service user information
- Event and exhibition displays

CLIENTS

My client list to date includes charities, NGOs, universities, professional membership associations and governmental/public bodies, including:

SPECIALISMS

My editorial portfolio spans a diverse range of subject areas, including:

- International development
- Human rights/access to justice
- Health and social care
- Research, policy, and practice
- Science and technology
- Radical politics and activism

EDUCATION / TRAINING

- Copyediting 2: Headway (Distinction) 2026
Chartered Institute of Editors and Proofreaders
- Proofreading 2: Headway (Merit) 2021
Chartered Institute of Editors and Proofreaders
- MSc Science Communication (Merit) 2007–08
University of the West of England
- BSc Biology (Hons.) 2004–07
University of Bristol

